Justin Quek

JQ Concepts Pte Ltd
Representing Eu Yan Sang

Justin Quek embarked on his expedition towards culinary excellence in his career at the Mandarin Oriental Hotel, which sponsored his training at the Singapore Hotel Association Training and Educational Centre (SHATEC) and Oriental Bangkok. His desire to improve his skills led him to Europe, where he gained experience from some of the most excellent establishments, such as Hotel de Crillon, Jean Bardet, Hotel du Centenaire and L'Oasis in France. Quek's return to Singapore brought him to greater heights as he joined in partnership with three others to found the critically acclaimed Les Amis Group in 1993. Some of the awards in his fanfare of gold are 'Best Achievement Award for Chosen Vocation' by Rotary Club West, and 'Best Chef of the Year Award' at the inaugural gastronomy 'Oscars', WGS Awards of Excellence

2001. In 2003, he clinched the coveted title of 'Sanpellegrino Chef of the Year' in the WGS Awards of Excellence 2003.
