Masterchef

Mauricio Guerrero Cruz was born in Chile and completed his education at the Märsta Gymnasiet Institute in Sweden between 1989 and 1991 where he earned his degree as chef. His 12-year experience include renowned restaurants such as Nobu (Miami), The Square (London) and Sea Grill (Brussels), Le Siecle (Vienna) and La Corone d'or (Sweden). Cruz's trademark is the combination of traditional local products such as king crab, duck, turbot, yellowfin tuna, lamb, ciervo y ancas in delicate Mediterranean preparations with Japanese and Swedish influence. Expect nothing less than an excellent fusion of traditional Mediterranean cuisine and Chilean products.
