Masterchef

Suzanne Goin

Lucques & A.O.C, Los Angeles , USA

Hosted by
Four Seasons Hotel Singapore,
One-Ninety

Embarking on her extraordinary culinary career in 1984 and harnessing experience from prolific restaurants in the United States and France, Suzanne Goin's resume is certainly the envy of many young chefs. The knowledge she picked up from restaurants such as Al Forno in Providence and Olives in Boston has helped Goin build a rock-solid reputation within the gastronomic circle. Named one of the best new chefs of 1999 by Food and Wine magazine, Goin was also commended for her restaurant, Lucques, when it was placed on the 'top six restaurants in Los Angeles' list in Gourmet magazine on October 2000, and 'top 45 restaurants in the nation' list on October 2001. Following the road of success, her second restaurant, A.O.C, has received countless ovations from the culinary community. Her culinary prowess has also seen her nominated for the coveted James Beard Award in 2003. She is currently writing a book, Sunday Suppers from Lucques, with writer Teri Gelber.
