

WORLD GOURMET SUMMIT

World Gourmet Summit 2005

UNIQUELY Singapore

Proudly Presented by

Culinary Workshop

Ramón Freixa

Restaurant El Raco d'en Freixa, Spain

Hosted by
The Oriental Singapore

Masterchef

H aving learnt the secrets of the most innovative cuisine from "La Cuisine des Anges" in the late 1980's, Ramón Freixa has come a long way. From La Truffe Noire to Comme Chez soi and to finally taking over his father at the one-Michelin-starred El Raco d'en Freixa, he has been a culinary force to be reckoned with. A regular figure in the media, Freixa also released a recipe book "pa, l'oli i vi" in 1998. Among the accolades heaped onto him are "Best Cook and Best Restaurant of Spain" in 2001, "Best Cheese Offer" in 2002 and "Best Desserts" in 2003. In addition to managing El Raco d'en Freixa, he is also in-charge of Messana restaurant in Marbella and "ERREEFE" in Madrid.