The Art of Dining

One of the world's renowned gourmet extravaganzas, the World Gourmet Summit, sets to return next April, promising an exciting epicurean adventure for food connoisseurs in Singapore and around the region

Jointly organised by Singapore Tourism Board (STB) and Peter Knipp Holdings (PKH), this inspirational gourmet odyssey will be held from 7 to 13 April 2002.

Entering into its sixth year, WGS 2002 will focus on, 'The Art of Dining', presenting a different perspective on gastronomy with the highlights on the culture and artistry of wining and dining.

In line with the theme, WGS 2002 will bring together Masterchefs from around the world such as USA, France, Italy, Australia, Spain, China and India to display their culinary brilliance. Prestigious wineries from France, Germany, USA and Australia will also feature their fine wines. Together, they will bring the art of gastronomy to new heights.

The Culinary Artists ~ Masterchefs

The line-up of Masterchefs for WGS 2002 includes some of the world's most sought-after names. They are; Arun Sampanthavivat (Arun's, Chicago, USA), UK's culinary legend Anton Mosimann (Mosimann's, London, UK), highly acclaimed Ettore Bocchia (Grand Hotel Villa Serbelloni, Lake of Como, Italy), rising star chefs Harunobu Inukai and Noriyuki Sugie (Restaurant VII, Sydney, Australia), innovative Hemant Oberoi (Taj Mahal Hotel, Mumbai, India), US most talked-about chef Marcus Samuelsson (Aquavit, New York, USA), 2-Michelin star chef Philippe Legendre (Four Seasons Hotel George V, Paris, France), 2-Michelin star chef Sergi Arola (La Broche, Madrid, Spain) and the highly acclaimed Philippe Padovani (Padovani's Restaurant & Wine Bar, Hawaii, USA) as well as the multi-talented Zhang Jin Jie (Green Tea House, Beijing, China).

Live it up in Singapore!
