FLOYD CARDOZ

TABLA | USA | HOSTED BY RANG MAHAL IN ASSOCIATION WITH PAN PACIFIC SINGAPORE

With prestigious recognitions such as 3-stars from The New York Times and Best Indian Restaurant in the Sixth Annual Eat Out Award conferred by Time Out New York in May 2002, Floyd Cardoz has made a stand in America's competitive culinary arena representing the 'coming of age' for modern Indian cuisine. The talented and innovative Indian-born is the executive chef at restaurateur Danny Meyer's Tabla, a groundbreaking and high-end American restaurant presenting unique and exciting Indian cuisine intrinsically fused with Western-style ambiance. This radiant chef is exceptionally particular about details and personally tends to the cocktails that also emancipate the Indian-Western fusion. Cardoz and his motivated team of seven chefs were also the main driving force behind "Dinner for Hope", a very successful and inspiring culinary charity event in aid of the earthquake victims in India recently hosted by the chic and classy Tabla in Manhattan, New York.
