Heinz Winkler

*Residenz Heinz Winkler
Germany*

Hosted at The Fullerton Hotel Singapore

With Heinz Winkler, chef-owner of the establishment at helm, it is no wonder that even famous personalities like the Queen of Thailand, Brooke Shields and foreign delegates are dining at the restaurant. A celebrated chef, Winkler is rightly the pioneer of 'cuisine vitale', a concept where gastronomy and well-being is united. In 1981 at the age of 31, Tirol born Winkler became the world's youngest chef to receive the three-Michelin-star rating. Winkler was also bestowed the Bundesverdienstkreuz, an order of the Federal Republic by the German President, Rau, in 2001 for his exemplary work in the German gastronomic scene.
